

Satellite Session: TuSm03

Crime and Punishment: Making the Case against the Criminalization of HIV

Tuesday, 11 August 2009
from 12:30–14:00

Room 07

Bougainville, BICC Westin

Moderator	Mr. Kevin Osborne, Senior HIV Advisor, IPPF, Central Office
Mr. Anand Grover	UN Special Rapporteur - Right to Health How and why the use of laws to criminalize HIV transmission is counterproductive to HIV prevention efforts
Ms. Meena S. Seshu	General Secretary, SANGRAM The potential impact of criminalization of HIV transmission on sex workers in India
Mr. Edward Low	Director, Positive Malaysian Treatment Access & Advocacy Group (MTAAG+) Spotlight on Malaysia: How the law affects the sexual & reproductive health rights of people living with HIV
Mr. Sujan Jirel	Activist living with HIV, Nepal Ground realities for people living with HIV in Nepal
Ms. Susan Timberlake	Senior Human Rights and Law Adviser, UNAIDS Alternatives to criminalization

Satellite Session: WeSm03

A Borderless Response to the Prevention of HIV Transmission

Wednesday, 12 August 2009
from 12:30–14:00

Room 07

Bougainville, BICC Westin

Moderator	Dr. Raj Karim Regional Director, IPPF, East & Southeast Asia and Oceania Region
Dr. Ru Xiaomei	China Population and Development Research Mobile populations: Who they are and how they are formed
Mr. Yusmadi Yusoff	Institute for Policy Research, Malaysia Roles and responsibilities of the State towards mobile populations
Mr. Montri Pekanon	Planned Parenthood Association of Thailand Views from the field: Increasing access to essential SRH and HIV services for the refugee population in Thailand
Mr. Gamini Wanasekara	Family Planning Association of Sri Lanka Views from the field: Addressing the SRH and HIV needs of IDPs in Sri Lanka